KAISER SEEKING AMERICAN FAVOR

Urges All German Residents to Obey State Laws.

PEACE MAY BE ONE MOTIVE

Well Informed Circles at Washington Believe Germany is Anxious to Avoid Another Winter Campaign and Looks to the United States to Ultimately Arrange for Ending European Conflict.

Washington, May 19.—The German government has begun a serious campaign to court the friendship of the United States that this country ultimately may be the prime mover in parleys for peace.

This was indicated in the statement made public by Ambassador von Bernstorff urging all German citizens in America to obey the laws of the states in which they live.

No communication on the part of the United States government has prompted this action. There is no doubt, however, that Ambassador Bernstorff's statement has made a favorable impression in official circles here.

In well informed circles it is believed Germany has made this move in pursuance of a well thought out campaign to placate the United States first and then bend every effort toward bringing about peace parleys, with President Wilson as the prime mover.

Day by day the news is coming to the state department from Berlin and Austria that Germany now wants peace.

Desires Early End to War.

The Kaiser emphasized the desire for an end of the war in his recent talk with American Ambassador Gerard.

Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg, prior to this, informed Mr. Gerard that the imperial government thought the time approaching when President Wilson may initiate a move for peace.

Count von Bernstorff here, acting under instructions from his government, has emphasized the willingness of Germany to make peace and thereby put an end to "the prolonged and useless struggle."

It is understood that Germany wants to avoid going through another winter campaign at all costs and that the imperial government had counted on peace overtures before this.

Mr. Gerard's messages to the state department on the desire of Germany for peace have been so numerous that Secretary of State Lansing is understood to share the opinion that peace is now becoming a necessity for Germany.

Both Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador, and M. Jusserand, the French ambassador, have informed the state department that their governments are unwilling to hear of peace at the present time.

MAXWELL ANSWERS BRUTALITY CHARGES

Dublin, May 19.—Major General Sir John Maxwell, commanding the British troops in Ireland, has given out the following statement in reply to charges of brutality made against the troops.

"These allegations seem almost exclusively concerned with the fighting in North King street which cut through the rebel area."

"Before we could complete a cordon in this street the worst fighting in the whole of Dublin, with the exception of that at Ball's Bridge, occurred there. Only after twenty-four hours of fighting were we able to capture the street. The casualties were very heavy in this fighting."

"As the troops moved along the street the rebels would escape by back doors and fire again from behind houses, necessitating the searching and occupying of every house. Always we found that the rebels sought to cloak themselves behind their women when we began to search a house."

"In spite of our efforts the women and children refused to leave the North King street area."

CABINET CHANGE EXPECTED

General Shakeup in German Ministry Hinted in Amsterdam.

London, May 19.—A dispatch to the Daily Express from Amsterdam says a general shakeup is expected in the German cabinet and that Herr von Rathenau will succeed Dr. Karl Helfferich, the imperial treasurer, who is slated for a new post.

Copenhagen, May 19.—King Christian was operated on for an intestinal trouble similar to that which necessitated an operation early in 1915.

The king was under anesthetic for an hour. The surgeons announced that the operation was successful.

SUBMARINE SINKS TWO GERMAN SHIPS

London, May 19.—The sinking of two German steamships by a submarine, believed to be a Russian, is reported in a Reuter dispatch from Stockholm. The steamships were the Kolga and the Bianca.

The steamships were torpedoed off the Swedish island of Landort, in the Baltic. The Kolga was shelled by the submarine for twenty minutes. Two members of the crew were slightly injured. The Bianca was then torpedoed and sunk. Thirteen of the crew were picked up by a Swedish steamer. Four others, including the captain and second mate, are missing.

Half an hour later the Bianca was shelled and then torpedoed. The attack occurred in the same vicinity as that on the Kolga. The captain was taken prisoner. Two members of the crew were injured slightly. They and the other members of the crew were picked up by the vessel which rescued the men from the Kolga.

WILL TALK TO PEACE BODY

President Accepts Invitation to Speak Next Week.

Washington, May 19.—Discussion of the possibility of an early restoration of peace in Europe was given added impetus among diplomats and officials here by an announcement at the White House that President Wilson has accepted an invitation to speak either Friday or Saturday of next week before a meeting of the League to Enforce Peace, of which former President Taft is president.

It is understood Mr. Wilson will make a statement on the subject of peace calculated to attract deep interest in European capitals.

Italians Hold Ground.

London, May 19.—The Italians in Southern Tyrol now are holding back the Austrians from further incursions into their positions. The Lefter valley, southwest of Trent, and in the Lagarina valley to the south of the city, the Austrians, after heavy artillery preparations, made vicious attacks against the Italian lines, but all were repulsed with heavy casualties, according to Rome.

Allies to Manufacture Dyes.

Paris, May 19.—It is stated that one of the results of the recent visit to Rome of M. Clementel, French minister of commerce, was an agreement to form a Franco-British-Italian company for the extensive manufacture of dyes.

GIRL SECURES HEART BALM

Jury Holds Pastor Guilty of Breach of Promise.

Boston, May 19.—A verdict for $3,425 was awarded by a jury in United States court to Miss Laura L. Johnson of Minneapolis, who sued Rev. Charles C. Wilson, pastor of the Church of Our Saviors in Rosindale, for $29,699 for breach of promise.

When the verdict was announced women parishioners of the minister crowded round him to shake his hands. He will move for a new trial. Miss Johnson was pleased by the verdict. She said she had not sought money, but vindication.

ALLIES FAVOR FIGHT TO FINISH SAYS FRENCH AMBASSADOR

While German Official Circles Think Peace Proposals by Great Neutral Would Succeed

Increased Appropriations Are Proposed For Fortifications At Panama And Hawaii

Think United States Might Succeed with Peace Negotiations

(By United Press)

Berlin, May 19.—The feeling here is that a strong neutral such as the United States, undertaking to negotiate peace might succeed. Diplomatic circles consider the recent statements of Sir Edward Grey as the opening gun to an informal peace discussion through expressions from allied leaders, although these do not appear conciliatory when lined up against the chancellor's Reichstag speech. It is undecided here whether an official reply to the allied leaders will be published, but it is possible. One official has stated that making peace now is no more difficult than adjusting the German-American submarine dispute.

ALLIES FOR A FIGHT TO FINISH

(By United Press)

Petrograd, May 19.—The allies stand solid for a finish fight, intending to break Germany's heavy sword. They owe this to the unborn generations. This is Rene Viviani's answer to Germany's peace talk. Viviani is the French ambassador here since he resigned from the ministry.

Roosevelt Talks Preparedness in Detroit

(By United Press)

Detroit, May 19.—Roosevelt brought dire warning to Ford's home town. He lambasted Ford's pacifism, raked Wilson's "make-believe" preparedness, accused influential Germans of reflecting the German government's approval of pacifists plans in the United States in order to keep America unprepared while maintaining Germany ready. He dubbed the present governmental representatives as ninety-nine per cent feeble, and classified Ford with the Tories of the revolutionary war and copperheads of the sixties. Two thousand people enthusiastically greeted Mr. Roosevelt.

CONSULS GATHER FOR CONFERENCE

Arrive at El Paso From Interior of Mexico.

PLAN TO PROTECT AMERICANS

Washington Officials Are Anxious That Lives and Property of United States Citizens in Mexico Be Safeguarded as Far as Possible.

Washington, May 19.—While waiting reopening of diplomatic discussions with Carranza and results of the military campaign against outlaws bands the United States government is considering further measures for protection of American interests in Mexico.

Several consuls from the interior of Mexico ordered to the border by the state department have arrived at El Paso for conferences expected to result in recommendations to the department in the interest of American lives and property across the southern boundary.

Coincident with the gathering of the consuls the state department announced partial returns of the census of Americans in Mexico recently ordered.

It was stated officially that the American colony at Mexico City now numbers about 1,200. Reports from other points indicate that there may be less than 3,000 citizens of the United States in all Mexico.

The consuls' conferences between themselves and with General Funston and other military leaders are expected to result in concerted steps to further safeguard Americans and their property.

Whether the question of effecting removal of Americans still remaining in the bandit infested regions will be considered was not disclosed here officially.

LABOR OPPOSES MILITARISM

Seattle Council Condemns Preparedness Parade.

Seattle, May 19.—A resolution opposing the preparedness parade to be held here June 10 and urging members of organized labor not to participate in the demonstration was made public here by the central labor council.

The question provoked considerable discussion, but the resolution was adopted without a dissenting vote.

The resolution opposing the preparedness parade says the Central Labor council opposes "parades or any other form of demonstration which might unduly magnify the preparedness sentiment for the purpose of influencing our representatives in congress with a view of entering the wedge of militarism."

PREPAREDNESS COST LESS THAN EXPECTED

Washington, May 19.—Secretary McAdoo submitted to Chairman Kitchin of the house ways and means committee and Chairman Simmons of the senate finance committee revised estimates of the current fiscal year and the fiscal year ending June 30, 1917.

Provision is made for the expenditure of from $90,000,000 to $100,000,000 on preparedness.

Only about $150,000,000 in additional revenue will have to be provided during the coming year, Mr. McAdoo said. This is less by $75,000,000 than the most conservative members of congress calculated, at the outset of the session, would be needed.

All of the additional revenue will come from taxes on incomes, inheritances and munitions, in accordance with a plan approved last week by President Wilson.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

You can Bring Back Color and Lustre with Sage Tea and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly.
Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and not a medicine. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

The bride was handsomely gowned in white marquisette, wore a bridal veil and carried white bridal roses. She was attended by the bridesmaid, Miss Grace Jacobson, of Little Falls, dressed in pink crepe de chine and carrying white carnations. The best man was Ed Stendal.

After the ceremony there was a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Larson where refreshments were served. They received many pretty and useful presents. Out of town guests were Mrs. Charles Lundin and daughter, Miss Gladys, of Little Falls. The bride has made her home for some time in Brainerd.

FOR MISS BARKER

Miss Caniff Entertains For Bride of the Fall on Wednesday Evening

Owing to the non-return of several of the teachers, Miss Caniff, principal of the Harrison school, entertained for Miss Barker, a bride of the fall, on Wednesday evening.

The color scheme throughout was red and white. Especially was this noted in the dining room where a large bouquet of red carnations was used for the center piece. Red streamers and hearts were fastened from the light to the four corners of the table.

Each guest found her place by a heart-shaped place card leaning against a bride in snowy gown and veil. Delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Barker was presented with a set of silver oyster forks and many good wishes.

Georgia Drexler, Soloist

Everyone loves to hear a child soprano. There is something about the quality of a child's voice appealing when handled properly. Miss Drexler is known to everyone for just such a voice as this.

MISS GEORGIA DREXLER

Surprise Party

A very agreeable surprise was given Mrs. Frank Russell on the occasion of her birthday, May 15.

On returning from a lodge meeting she found her house filled with friends to the number of thirty, all ready to play five hundred. A very pleasant time was had including a delicious lunch. Head favors were won by Mrs. Frances Britton and Clifford Russell, consolation by Mrs. Bert Gilmer and Fred McNaughton.

Mrs. Russell was presented with a beautiful linen table spread as a token of remembrance.

Duvetyn Coats for Motor Wear

BY MARGARET MASON

(Written for the United Press)

"I'm glad that Enrich liquid's green. That saves the cost of gasoline; 'Twill go as well, said Blanche Marie With my new motor coat you see."

New York, May 19.—A lady enveloped in an emerald hued motor coat of duvetyn with an emerald satin jockey's cap and a floating length or two of emerald chiffon veil isn't as green as she looks. She is decidedly smart according to the latest thing in motor modes. The coats for motor wear are legion this season and the time is, fortunately, long since past when the lovely motor maid had to disguise herself like a gargoyle in order to dress the part. The duvetyn coats are of course the richest and it takes the richest to buy 'em. They come in wonderfully brilliant shades of rose, raspberry, emerald, ochre and sapphire blue. Either in the long, loose, flaring models or the belted in effects they are very stunning indeed. They are becoming to all figures but they become yours only for several figures. Other soft woolen materials that have the general effect of the duvetyn in a speeding motor as on a galloping horse make up equally stunning and less costly togs. One of gold color is cut in a military, with capacious buttoned hip pockets and smaller buttoned breast pockets. It has a wide buttoned belt, raglan sleeves and a wide rolling collar that can be worn open or turned up snug and close and tight, to fasten with a disk of jade the size of a silver dollar. This coat is lined throughout with the same shade of gold satin.

Many of the coats however, like many people, hide a gay and frivolous interior under a sedate and drab exterior. Slate colored, plainly tailored coats adorned solely with self-toned buttons are lined with exotic crepe and silks of ultra futuristic designs as are most of the other tans and fawns. Buttons galore you find on all of them and a Jenny model that is shown in serge, shepherd plaid wool, or natural pongee is buttoned straight down the front from the top of the choker collar to the bottom of the hem and shows further button symptoms on the deep cuffs, big slash hip pockets and the belt which only confines the front, the back being left loose and flaring.

The buttons on the serge models, which come in black, wine and navy are white bone disks. Those on the shepherd plaid are black bone and the pongee has bullet buttons of the pongee tone.

Besides her emerald coat Blanche Marie, just from Paris, brought over a chic loose coat of huge Jersey cloth with a deep band of navy taffeta around its flaring hem, deep navy cuffs and roll collar and a deep rippling cape collar of the Jersey lined taffeta hanging down behind. For wear with this she has an ideal motor hat made of two inch beige gros-grain ribbon sewed together in four rows from the little round center of the crown. The tiny roll brim is the ribbon doubled and a smart pleated cockade of the ribbon adorns one side. Not only for motoring is this little crush hat charming as well as practical, but for all forms of travel, as it can be rolled up in a wad with the utmost abandon and tucked in the oddest of odd corners when not desirable and touched on the head at the oddest of odd angles.

All shades of green and yellow and crosses of the two like ginger champagne and citron are chosen colors of the racy racing motor maids this year and many a speed sister is all the mustard in a pliant automobile coat of the same seasoning and reasonable shade.

Fortunately for the speedometer these are all fast colors.

Richard W. Gilder's Daughter Wed

(By United Press)

New York, May 19.—The marriage of Miss Dorothea de Kay Gilder, the daughter of the late Richard Watson Gilder, poet and editor of the Century magazine, to Dallas D. L. McGrew, son of Rev. and Mrs. George H. McGrew of Silver Spring and Baltimore, Md., took place today at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Richard Watson Gilder, of No. 24 Gramercy Park. Owing to illness in the family the wedding was attended by the members of the immediate families only. Miss Gilder's father, the late Richard Watson Gilder, was known widely as a poet. She is a sister of the Misses Francesca de K and Rosamond de K Gilder and of Mrs. George de Kay Gilder. The late Miss Jenette Gilder, authoress, was her aunt. Through her mother, who was Miss Helena de Kay, she is related to the De Kay family. A few years ago Miss Gilder made an excursion into the world of the stage. Her first part was that of a flower girl in "Kismet," with Orla Skinner. Later she was in "Egypt," a play by Edward Sheldon, in which Miss Margaret Anglin was the star. She was also for a short time with E. H. Sothern and Miss Julia Marlowe. On the program she appeared as Miss Dorothea Coleman. Mr. McGrew is connected with the International Banking Corporation and lives in New York. He was for a time on the staff of the Boston Journal.

Ireland's Golden Age.

There need be no "theory" as to the early culture of Ireland. It is a fact, for example, that the Abbey of Clonmacnoise, near Athlone, was once a center of learning so renowned that scholars repaired thither from the ends of Europe, and the great Charlemagne sent it presents. And in the realm of art "The Book of Kells," a Latin copy of the Gospels, executed at that time, had no rival for delicacy of illumination.—London Standard.

Hughes Could Not Keep Out

(By United Press)

Portland, Ore., May 19.—A three-cornered race between Senator Cummins, Theodore E. Burton and Justice Hughes for the republican nomination for president featured Oregon's presidential preference primary today. Early reports indicated a large vote. Most of the candidates for delegates to the republican and democratic national conventions have agreed to abide by today's preferential vote. Ten delegates to each convention will go from Oregon. Wendell Wilson is the only democratic candidate for president. Vice-President Marshall and Governor Majors of Missouri oppose each other for the democratic vice-presidential nomination. Cummins and Burton have been active candidates. Charles E. Hughes is a candidate against his own wishes. He wrote to Secretary of State Olcott asking that his name be left off the ballot. Despite his request, Hughes' supporters filed a petition signed by 1,200 voters demanding that his name be put on the ballot. Olcott declined to remove his name. Hughes telegraphed again that he did not want his name on the ballot. But there it is. The Oregon supreme court decided that Hughes has nothing to say about it. If enough people want him in the White House, he must run. A writ of mandamus was issued commanding Olcott to print Hughes' name. A strong element among Oregon republicans favors Hughes.

Yes, there was a fourth republican presidential candidate. His name is Charles E. Lockwood and he styled himself, on the ballot, "Oregon's favorite son." He lives in Portland. He withdrew in favor of Hughes. James Inman of Looking Glass, Ore., abandoned his usual custom of filing for the republican presidential nomination.

C. N. McArthur (incumbent), E. V. Littlefield and A. W. Lafferty (representative) are opponents for the republican nomination for representative in congress from the Third district. Representatives W. C. Hawley and N. J. Sennott from the First and Second districts have no opponents.

Presbyterian to Elect Moderator

Atlantic City, N. J., May 19.—One of the subjects of greatest interest at the 128th General Assembly of the Presbyterian church, which is meeting here today, is who will be the next moderator to succeed the incumbent, the Rev. Dr. J. Ross Stevenson, president of Princeton Theological Seminary. Not for years has there been so little discussion before an assembly of candidates. Usually the politics begin as early as the preceding January. But within six weeks of the approaching assembly there were only two men who were actually known to have their "hats in the ring." One is the Rev. Dr. Samuel S. Palmer, pastor of the Park church, Columbus, Ohio, who was a defeated candidate a few years ago. The other is the Rev. Dr. John A. Marquis, president of Coe College, Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Both are well known throughout the church. It seems that geographically each has a good chance, as there is a sentiment to let the honor go to a man from the Middle West. Dr. Palmer was defeated at the Atlanta assembly, and Dr. Marquis refused to let his friends nominate him at Chicago, as they desired, so as to leave the field clear for the Rev. Dr. Maitland Alexander, of Pittsburgh, who was elected. It is possible that another candidate may be the Rev. Dr. Cornelius M. Stephens, president of Duquesne College and Theological Seminary, who was one of the defeated candidates at Rochester. But many believe that Dr. Stephens would not consent to run against a man in his own synod. It is possible that friends may put forward the Rev. Dr. George B. Stewart, president of Auburn Theological Seminary, Auburn, N. Y. Dr. Stewart was defeated also last year. Because the three nominees at Rochester, Dr. Stevenson, Stewart and Stephens, all have names which begin with "st" they have been known ever since as "The Three Saints."

Another question that is interesting Presbyterian leaders is who they shall elect to succeed the late Rev. Dr. William B. Noble as permanent clerk of the assembly. Dr. Noble, whose home was in Coronado, Cal., died last summer. The office carries with it a salary of $750. Of the many candidates for that position one is the Rev. Dr. Clarence G. Reynolds, pastor in Elizabeth, N. J. There are many who are urging the merging of the office with that of the assistant stated clerk, the incumbent of which is the Rev. Dr. James M. Hubbert, who works the year around in the general assembly headquarters, in Philadelphia, under the Rev. Dr. Wm. Henry Roberts, the stated clerk.

Duluth Woman Describes the Benefits She Derived From the Use of Tanlac

Duluth, Minn., May 19.—"I want to recommend Tanlac because I know what it has done for me," Mrs. Edward J. Largeleis, a well known Duluth woman who lives at 2621 West Huron street, said a few days ago.

"I suffered for a long time with stomach trouble," she continued. "Frequently, after eating, nausea bothered me to such an extent I couldn't retain the food I had eaten. I had no appetite. My sleep was troubled."

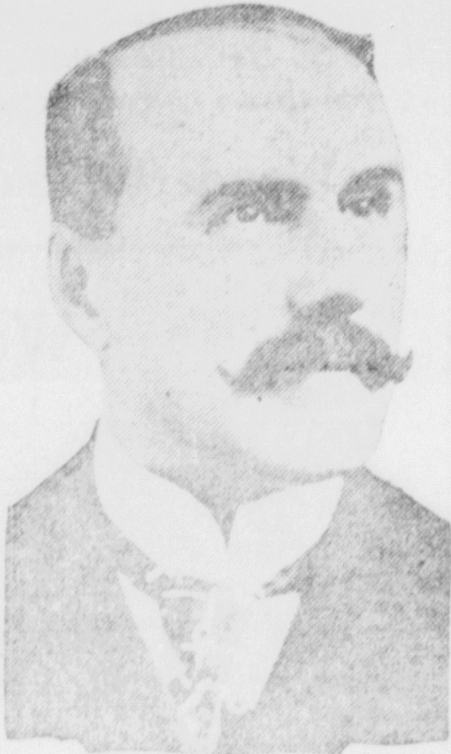

"I'm able to eat anything I care for since taking Tanlac, and there are no bad after effects. I sleep much better now. I want to recommend Tanlac to all my friends."

Tanlac, the master medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, rheumatism, nervousness, loss of appetite and the like and is a fine blood purifier and general system cleanser.

Tanlac is now being specially introduced and explained in Brainerd at Johnson's Pharmacy.—Adv.

A. L. MOHLER.

Resigns as President of Union Pacific Railroad.

Omaha, May 19.—The resignation of A. L. Mohler as president of the Union Pacific railroad and the Oregon Short Line railroad, effective July 1, was announced here. No reasons for the resignation were given.

From sources in close touch with Mr. Mohler it was learned that he had been in ill health for several months following a fall while skating on the ice of a municipal park in this city last winter. This, it was said, may have caused his retirement.

LEAGUE FORMED TO BOOST ROOSEVELT

Washington, May 19.—Information that a Republican Roosevelt league had been organized at New York, of which George von L. Meyer, former secretary of the navy, is chairman, and William Leah, Jr., vice chairman, reached Washington, and created a stir among the Republican politicians.

It is the third distinct national organization at work to bring about the nomination of Colonel Roosevelt for president. The others are the National Progressive party, with George W. Perkins the directing genius, and the Nonpartisan Roosevelt league.

It is the understanding in Washington that the latest entry in the Roosevelt propaganda is likely to turn out to be a formidable movement.

MILLIONS WASTED ON ROADS

Lack of Intelligent System Has Caused Big Leakage.

Millions of dollars have been wasted on road building because there has been no continuity of purpose, no coordination of management, no centralization of control in the work, according to the American Highway association. The plan pursued, so far as there has been any plan, has been of the higgledy-piggledy, here a little, there a little order, and with generally disappointing results. The national government does not exercise any administrative control over public roads except those built on government reservations, and until recently the states took no direct part in the construction of improved roads, which for nearly half a century were controlled and financed by the county or by subdivisions of the county, so that the public road which should be operated for the benefit of all the people was in fact nothing more or better than "a purely local utility."

Down to the present time about 35,000 miles of improved highways have been constructed under the immediate direction of the several state highway departments. In 1914 the states expended in road numbers $30,000,000 for road purposes, and in 1915 the appropriations available for this work amounted to about $55,000,000. In addition, the local expenditures aggregated about $200,000,000 in 1914. In 1904 the total amount expended by the states, counties and townships for road purposes in the United States amounted to about $90,000,000. In the course of ten years the expenditures on this account nearly trebled. That there is not more to show for it is due to the lack of intelligent and responsible system in the planning and building of the roads. In the states that have adopted the policy of centralized state management the largest percentage of improved highways is to be found. Massachusetts leads the list with 51.7 per cent of improved highways. Ohio follows with 35.8 per cent, New Jersey takes third place with 30.5 per cent. New York is fourth in order with 27.9 per cent, and Connecticut is fifth with 22.2 per cent improved roads. All these states have had state highway departments for more than ten years.

"The High Seas."

By "The high seas" referred to in article 1 of the constitution of the United States is meant the open sea—that is, the waters outside the civil jurisdiction of any country whatever, which, according to the law of nations, is limited to one marine league, or three geographical miles, from the shore. Even the great lakes beyond the limit designated above are regarded as "high seas."

DOZEN MEN TO NAME NOMINEE

Political Observer Sure Republicans Can Get Together.

ROOSEVELT THEIR PUZZLE.

Significance Is Attached to Gifford Pinchot's Statement That the Colonel Could Not Support This or That Man For Various Reasons—Many Believe Assertions Have T. R.'s O. K.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, May 19.—[Special.]—A Republican senator who might be called a "political onlooker" because he has never taken any active interest in shaping the political policies of the nation, but has voted with the majority of his party on all occasions, says that when the Republicans get together in Chicago the dozen or more aspirants who will have votes in the convention, with their friends, will determine who shall be the candidate. It is his opinion that after a few ballots they will take stock of conditions and decide to nominate the man who is likely to poll the most votes and carry the election.

This same observer says that there is no possibility of nominating Roosevelt at the present time and expressed the belief that one reason why the colonel will not be selected is because of the fear of the Republicans that they cannot win with him.

He Will and He Won't.

We are constantly getting lunches on the attitude of Colonel Roosevelt. We hear from one source that he will support this or that candidate and from another source that he will not support such a candidate. At times we are informed that he will not support either Hughes, Root, Weeks, Burton or Sherman, although no one has yet declared that he would not support Senator Cummins.

Significance is attached to the statement issued some time ago by Gifford Pinchot in which he said that the Republicans must nominate Roosevelt and indicated plainly that Roosevelt could not support different men mentioned for various reasons. "The general belief is that Roosevelt saw that statement before it was issued, for no one believes that any man whose relations are as close to the ex-president as Pinchot's would make such a statement without the colonel's approval."

And so we have it up and down, in and around, with the colonel still the center of the stage and apparently holding the power which may determine the Republican nomination.

Tammany Did It.

Senator Kenyon wandered from one thing to another during his discussion of the river and harbor bill and finally asserted that the Democrats had broken their Philippine platform plank "through the influence of the great political organization in New York city known as Tammany Hall."

"Did not almost the entire Republican membership of the house vote with Tammany," asked Vandenberg of Mississippi, "so that it did not depend altogether on Tammany?"

"That is true," replied Kenyon, "but without Tammany the Republicans would have been helpless."

In Statu Quo.

Senator Ashurst, who has been having more or less trouble with the Indian bill, was asked concerning the status of that measure. "It is in statu quo," he replied. "You know our west we have a saying that this or that matter is in 'statu quo' and then finally some one who is not on to the game will ask, 'What is statu quo?' And the reply is, 'In abelotants.' That is the situation in regard to the Indian bill."

Gallinger Has the Habit.

"I am going to vote for the amendment submitted by the senator from Montana," remarked Senator Gallinger of New Hampshire in referring to the amendment of Walsh providing that $100,000,000 be spent for roads in the western forest reserves. "In fact," continued Gallinger, "it has become so much a habit of mine, dating back a great many years, to vote for what the men of the west want that I find it difficult to get away from them on any proposition they submit."

And the western men know that they have no better friend in the senate than this sturdy man from the Granite State.

Cannot Get Around Ohio.

We see from time to time suggestions about a Republican ticket with Root and Burton, Hughes and Burton Weeks and Burton, and in going farther west there are men who propose a ticket of Cummins and Burton. It seems that we cannot get around the Ohio idea, but the Burton men say that the ticket will be Burton and some other man whom New York desires named for second place.

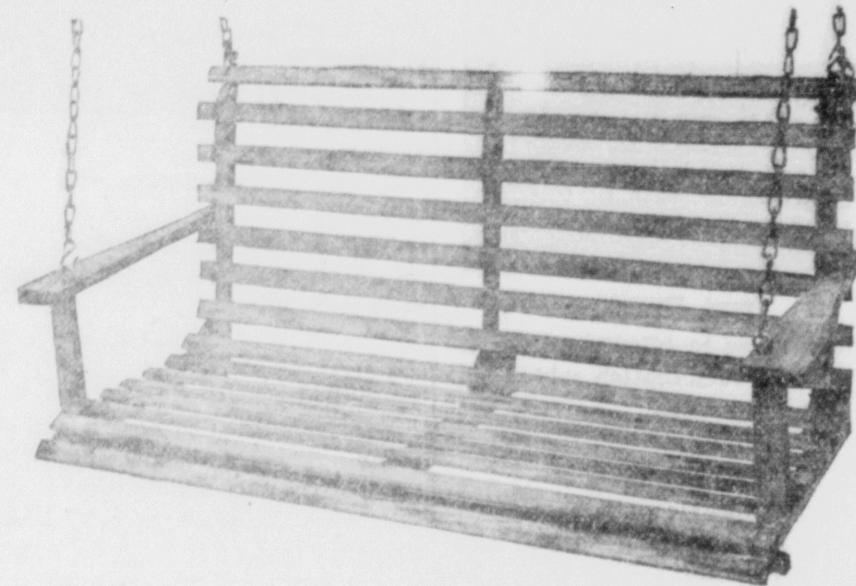

Naval Bill Delay.

It seems rather strange in view of the necessity for preparedness and the length of time it takes to build naval vessels, that there should have been so much delay in the consideration of the naval appropriation bill. Just why that measure has been held back nearly six months now is one of the strange things in connection with legislation. Possibly there is going to be some difficulty with the bill before it reaches Extracts from a letter by Elbert Hubbard.

"Rustic hickory furniture is the only strictly American style furniture in the whole round world."

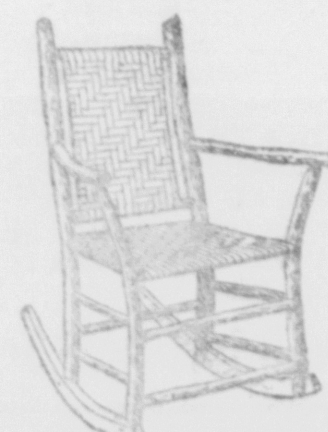

"It is homely as Abraham Lincoln—and as beautiful. It is honest. It has nothing to hide. It speaks for itself. Solid, simple, comfortable, substantial, it never goes out of style. 'No one has lived long enough to wear out a Rustic Hickory chair. This furniture seems oblivious to weather. It endures in any climate.'"

"Here is furniture that can be used a lifetime and then passed on as heirlooms to the generations yet to come. The strength, honesty, simplicity of this line of furniture will delight young and old. Those who have traveled farthest and seen most like it best."

"The silvery gray bark is beautiful to contemplate. It is Nature's own production, fashioned by the sunshine, the wind, the storm, the summer shower."

"The LaPorte Rustic Hickory furniture is not cheap furniture, and yet the prices of these beautiful artistic pieces are so moderate that you have a shock when you hear them."

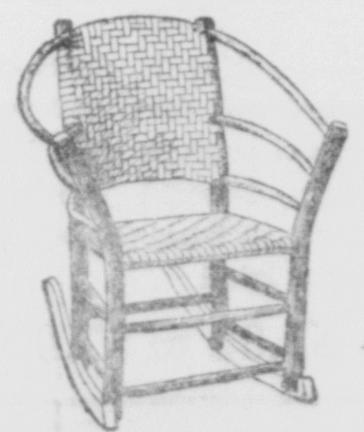

"I was so pleased with the Rustic Hickory furniture that I bought a dozen pieces on the spot."

GAS PLANT WORK, BRICK BUILDING

Structure Measuring 40 by 95 Feet,
25 Feet High, is Being Erected
by the Gas Company

CONNECTIONS TO BE MADE

If Stoves are Bought no Charge, it is Reported, Will be Made for Connections

In addition to laying mains, employing some 50 men, the Brainerd Gas & Electric Co. is putting up a brick building measuring 40 by 95 feet and 25 feet high on its gas plant site, giving employment to eight bricklayers and a number of tenders and other laborers.

It is expected to have the plant going by August 1 and not later than September 1 said J. C. Spiering, who is the gas superintendent. That will depend on how material is delivered to the plant, iron shipments being much delayed at present.

Offices have been rented in Brainerd and will be opened up June 1. A large display of gas stoves and ranges will be shown. It is reported connections will be made free if gas stoves are purchased.

Pipes will be run through basements and up through the floor, meeting with the stoves. There are water heaters, laundry stoves, tank heaters, single ovens, cabinet ranges, a type of stove for every need.

UNUSUAL SERMON

By Rev. H. G. Stacey at St. Paul's
Episcopal Church on Next Sunday

On Sunday next at the evening service an unusual kind of address will be given at St. Paul's Episcopal church. The non-church goer says, "The church uses its pulpit to bring accusations against those who disagree with it but gives them no opportunity to defend themselves. A moment's thought will show it is impossible to throw open the pulpits to such and every one. Yet justice is demanded of the pulpit." The case of Freethinkers, Socialists, Revolutionists and Modern Science will be stated on Sunday evening.

"Reason will be given which in the mind of many justifies no church going and also condemn the very existence of the church. No mercy will be shown the church. A jury consisting of infidel opponents of the church are asked for to judge as to whether the case is presented fairly. Wage earners especially are invited to attend. All classes are welcome."

WINDOW CARDS HAVE A SMALL "CIRCULATION"

Is the man who ought to buy your property hard to find? Have you about concluded that he has placard-blindness? Or perhaps it occurred to you that a window placard has, after all, rather a limited circulation, and is therefore, a poor thing to rely upon if you really want to sell. Buyers, you see, have a theory that real estate that is of any importance, or that is desirable, is sure to be advertised in the newspaper when the owner wants to sell it.

COMMUNITY PICNIC PLANS

July 14 Will be Date of Second Annual Picnic, to be Held at Lum Park

EX-GOV. VAN SANT TO SPEAK

Athletic Sports Staged Between City and Visiting Athletes, Evening
Fireworks

Plans for the second annual Community Picnic were discussed this noon at a meeting held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms by the program committee of the Federated Farmers' clubs in conjunction with the house and social committee and convention committee of the Chamber. The plans as tentatively agreed upon call for a big day on July 14th, Friday, when there will be a blare of band music, good speakers, athletic sports and contests besides dancing and a big basket lunch. The picnic will be held at Lum park where Tom Mansuras will provide free coffee, dancing and many amusements to be announced later.

It is proposed to hold a short ball game in the downtown district in the forenoon. All game between two ball teams, later marching to the park where dinner will be held. Immediately following the dinner, Ex-Governor S. R. Van Sant will speak to both the farmers and Old Army veterans who will be in attendance in convention for July 13th, 14th and 15th. Following the speaker, athletic sports and contests will be staged between city and farmer folks such as a boat race, tug-of-war, swimming race, foot races, high jump, broad jump and many others. The evening will be devoted to dancing and fireworks to be decided upon later. All those having arrangements to hand plan on making this the biggest event ever pulled off in Crow Wing county and the federation together with other committees are working diligently to surpass all former efforts.

Hanged Today for Murder

(By United Press)
Dennis, N. M., May 19.—The seven men captured in the Columbus raid, and they had taken part in the Columbus raid, and they were sentenced to death by Judge Edward L. Medler here April 28, were hanged at Santa Fe yesterday. At the time they were sentenced, the prisoners pleaded that they were ignorant of where they were going at the time of the raid and that they were forced to follow Villa under penalty of death.

Six of the bandits listened unmoved to the sentence of death, but the seventh, Jose Rangel, who had been wounded in the raid and was carried into court on a cot, cried for mercy.

IRONTON PLAYS BRAINERD MAY 21

Local Team to Face Last Year's Brainerd Pitcher, Al Victor,
Now of Ironton

IRONTON IS VERY CONFIDENT

Pitcher Claude Noel, Brainerd's New
Slab Artist, to Make His First Appearance Sunday

Ironton plays Brainerd here next Sunday, May 21. The Ironton team comes down with Al Victor as its pitcher and the local team will face its former team mate with determination. Victor, by the way, is very confident of beating Brainerd.

Village Attorney D. B. McAlpine was in Brainerd Wednesday and he told Judge C. W. Stanton, who by the way is an enthusiastic fan, that the best ball game ever staged in the northwest was to be played next Sunday.

"Who is going to play?" asked the judge.

"Why, Ironton and Brainerd," answered Mr. McAlpine. Judge Stanton will probably stay over to see the game.

Pitcher Claude Noel, Brainerd's season's mound artist, was in Brainerd Wednesday to see "The Birth of a Nation." Noel says he is in fine shape for a hard game Sunday and will beat Victor. With so much confidence on both sides, something is bound to bust when the contest gets close.

The Brainerd lineup, tentatively announced is:
Erickson cf, Bratton rf, Templeman 3b, Cook 1b, Bonds ss, Frank c, Bush lf, Stallman 2b, Noel p.

Ironton is out to win and it is thought she may lead up with foreign material in some departments. They expect to give "Cook's Colts" a run for their money, anyway.

Get Up Right.

Get up right in the morning. Go to bed right at night. Start with joy in your heart, hope in the future, kind words in your purpose.

If it is a dark day never mind; you will lighten it up. If it is a bright day you will add to the brightness. Give a word of cheer, a kindly greeting and a warm handshake to your friends.

If your enemies look up at you they will forget and try to forget.

If all of us would bear in mind that happiness is from within and not from without there would be a wellspring of joy in every heart, and the sun would shine forever.

Try It—Ladies.

Admission to This Theatre is 100 Flies

(By United Press)

Bentonville, Ark., May 19.—The boys of Bentonville "don't need no money" to see the movies here on Friday nights. The admission fee is 100 dead flies, or ten cents in cash.

A local movie magnate has posted a sign reading "Admission, 100 Dead Flies" and it is making a hit. Every Friday night one hundred of the swatted corpses admit you to his theatre. And then you can win five extra tickets for bringing in the largest number. Bentonville citizens have taken to the novelty and indications are that flies will soon be an unknown quantity here.

ATHLETICS REVIEWED

Football and Basketball Record of Brainerd High School Glorious
Page of History
(Contributed)

As the long school term draws to a close, like a candle burned to its extremity, we wish to review the athletic side of our school year.

We started the heavy grilling for the development of a football team immediately after the fall call for volunteers to attend the B. H. S. Splendid leadership of Prof. H. H. Kilian developed a machine which we thoroughly expected to "rip up" Little Falls. A large crowd of High school enthusiasts and people made the trip. Several cars carrying enthusiastic Brainerdites began arriving at the team city at eleven a. m. and from then on Little Falls was a regular city. High school yells were lifted on crisp October breezes and the city rang out with the echoes of their yells. The game was called that afternoon at 3:30 and the battle began. Brainerd could not keep up their tremendous rate and at the end of the first half were behind but not beaten. Right here we might state that if we had had our record breaking Walt Koop in half that game we could have escaped that defeat. But Brainerd was doomed and we took defeat in the proper way. A sportsman always takes defeat just as gracefully as victory and Brainerd proved themselves to be real sportsmen. After that game we got into the old stride with Walt Koop in the half-back pose. We went out on the warpath for scalps, we got them. We beat Aitkin here, then up there. We played a 6 to 9 game at Akeley, a battle which made the red blood tingle in the veins of the spectators. We brought Akeley down here and "beat 'em up bad." Again we challenged Little Falls but they refused to come but on the date for one of our games went to Anoka and played Anoka. Enough to say, Anoka annihilated them. The successful football season closed quite late but Brainerd had made a good showing having lost but one game, that the first. Then close upon the heels of football came the basketball season. The first successful basketball season was the 1915 season during which many stars and promising recruits were developed. Warner, Falconer, Reis, Hagberg, O'Brien, Molstad, Brodenberg, Carlson, Olson are among the stars and most promising recruits. The following is a program of games as they were played:

Jan. 8—Wadena vs Brainerd at Brainerd—Wadena 27, Brainerd 35.

Jan. 15—Little Falls vs Brainerd at Little Falls—Brainerd 34, Little Falls 21.

Jan. 21—Aitkin vs Brainerd at Brainerd—Brainerd 20, Aitkin 12.

Jan. 28—Staples vs Brainerd at Brainerd—Brainerd 58, Staples 8.

Feb. 5—Wadena vs Brainerd at Wadena—Brainerd 8, Wadena 22.

Feb. 12—Bemidji vs Brainerd at Brainerd—Brainerd 36, Bemidji 27.

Feb. 18—Aitkin vs Brainerd at Aitkin—Brainerd 19, Aitkin 16.

Feb. 22—Crosby vs Brainerd at Crosby—Brainerd 19, Crosby 8.

Mar. 2—Bemidji vs Brainerd at Bemidji—Brainerd 13, Bemidji 45.

Mar. 10—Little Falls vs Brainerd at Brainerd—Brainerd 24, Little Falls 25.

Why So Popular?

Anything that relieves worry is popular—that's why so many people depend on us for lighting and starting satisfaction.

BRAINERD ELECTRIC CO.
710 Laurel Street

Free inspection of any battery at any time

Mar. 14—Little Falls vs Brainerd at Little Falls—Brainerd 16, Little Falls 30.

Mar. 17—Crosby vs Brainerd Senior team at Brainerd—Brainerd 13, Crosby 12.

Thus it can be seen that the basketball season was very successful and moreover that this was the first season that basketball did prove a success. The credit of producing such an excellent team goes to Professor C. H. Kimball, head of the manual training department of the high school. Mr. Kimball's first appearance in Brainerd was made last fall when he took up his profession here and we sincerely hope that he may return and share with us the victory and honor of a championship team which is due us next season.

Little Falls attained the distinction of being the champions of the sixth district this season after defeating Brainerd two out of three games and then defeating Bemidji two out of three games. This year season appeared very peculiar as four teams: Brainerd, Little Falls, Bemidji and Wadena were in the championship race until the final two or three weeks when Bemidji ushered Wadena out then Little Falls showed Brainerd the exit and soon the same to Bemidji. Thus ends the historic story of the sport review of the Brainerd high school.

Lore of the Clover.

Any one who carries about a four leaved clover will be lucky and will have the power of discovering ghosts or evil spirits. With it under the pillow the lover may insure dreams of the beloved one. A fragment in the shoe of a traveler insures a safe journey. The power of the four leaved shamrock for good is familiar to all from Lover's pretty and once popular song, the speaker in which pictures what she would do should she find the magic plant:

I would play the enchanter's part and scatter bliss around, And not a tear or aching heart should in the world be found.—London Globe.

NAVAL PROGRAM IS AGREED UPON

House Committee Adopts Plan for One Year.

ALSO FAVORS DISARMAMENT

Five Battle Cruisers, Four Scout Ships, Ten Destroyers, Twenty Submarines, One Hospital Vessel, One Fuel Ship and One Ammunition Boat Are Provided For.

Washington, May 19.—The house naval committee adopted a "big navy" program for one year and at the same time went on record in favor of universal disarmament.

The committee's program calls for expenditure of $180,000,000 in fleet construction.

The five year plan recommended by the secretary of the navy is knocked out, but the number of ships recommended by the secretary is increased in almost every class. In favoring universal disarmament the committee called on the president to do all within his power to bring about settlement of international disputes by arbitration.

The program agreed upon follows: Five battle cruisers, $20,433,531 each.

Four scout cruisers, $5,571,000 each. Ten torpedo boat destroyers, $1,325,314 each.

Twenty submarines, three of 800 tons and seventeen of a design to be selected by the department, $1,200,000 each for the former and $725,000 for the latter.

One hospital ship, $7,225,000. One fuel ship, $2,263,272. One ammunition ship, $2,714,652.

The battle cruisers are to have a speed of 35 knots, 150,000 horsepower and a chief armament of ten 14-inch guns.

Eight of the submarines and four destroyers are to be built on the Pacific coast.

Republican Proposals Beaten.

Efforts of Republicans to authorize a larger number of ships were defeated in every instance.

Republicans voted solidly against the program submitted by Chairman Padgett and announced they would bring in a minority report. Amendments offered by Congressman Roberts providing for premiums to the contractors to speed up construction were defeated.

Amendments by Congressman Britton to limit time for commissioning the ships also were defeated.

The disarmament resolution introduced by Congressman Hensley and adopted by unanimous vote is in part as follows:

"Upon conclusion of the war in Europe, or as soon after as it may be done, the president of the United States is authorized to invite all great governments of the world to send representatives to a conference which shall be charged with the duty of suggesting an organized court of arbitration or other body to which questions of disagreement between nations shall be referred for adjudication and peaceful settlement and to consider the question of disarmament and to submit their recommendations to their respective governments for approval."

The resolution authorizes appointment of nine men to represent the United States in such conferences and appropriates $200,000 for their salary and all expenses. The committee also adopted an amendment preventing expenditure of money under the appropriation should an international court render unnecessary the maintenance of competitive armament.

PREMIER INTRODUCES BILL

British Columbia May Abolish the Liquor Traffic.

Victoria, B. C., May 19.—Premier Bowser introduced in the provincial parliament a prohibition bill to come into force in British Columbia July 1 next year.

The measure is more drastic than the Washington state law. Its passage is declared assured.

There is to be no interference with the consumption or keeping of liquor in private houses, but it must be imported.

Offenses against the act will not be punishable by fines, except in the cases of corporations, where the punishment for infractions will be a fine of $1,000.

As to individuals jail terms of from six to twelve months are provided. Dispensaries are to be established and administered in most cases by the provincial police.

Sacramental wines and liquors for doctors and hospitals will thus be provided.

The Strange Case of Mary Page

The Great McClure Mystery Story, Written by FREDERICK LEWIS, in Collaboration With JOHN T. M'INTYRE, Author of the Ashton Kirk Detective Stories

Read the Story and See the Essayay Moving Pictures

Copyright, 1915, by McClure Publications

It seemed incredible to those who had watched the frenzied, screaming woman carried out the day before that she could ever regain her sanity. When she came in, very pale, very wan, but serenely calm and smiling, nothing but the fear of being shut out from the final scenes of the great drama kept the crowds from wild applause.

The prosecutor alone did not look at her. He felt at that moment almost as if he hated her with personal vindictiveness. For he, too, had had an all-night vigil, seeking some ruse or legal technicality that would keep the events of the day before out of the records of the case. He knew only too well that any jury, having seen Mary's seizure, would be readily convinced that she might have suffered in the same fashion on the night when James Pollock was killed, and that if they were convinced of that, proving Mary's guilt was going to be the hardest struggle he had ever known.

In consequence the opening hours of court were marked by a series of bitter wrangles during which even his honor lost his temper, and the restlessness of the spectators became open disorder. But for all his acidity of wit and skill at argument it was a losing fight that the District Attorney waged. He was conscious of that himself. Therefore it came as no surprise when it was at last brought summarily to an end by the judge, who ordered the testimony of the policeman as to Mary's madness entered as evidence.

With a long breath of relief Langdon turned back toward his seat, suddenly becoming conscious that he was holding a crumpled scrap of paper which the bailiff had thrust into his hand some moments before. He remembered now that the court officer had said something when he gave it to him, but he hadn't caught the words, and it was with entire indifference that he opened the note and read the hastily scrawled words. But at the sight of them indifference gave place to excitement. Crumpling the paper up in his hand, he turned sharply to the bailiff.

"Call George Brennan," he said, and there was triumph in his tones.

Brennan was the same element young detective who had told of the disappearance of Daniels, and the first question asked him revealed what had been in the note.

"Mr. Brennan, I have just received a message which says that you have found Mr. Daniels. Will you tell the court, please, the circumstances of the finding of the missing man?"

"Well, it wasn't exactly a case of 'finding' him," said the detective, with a smile. "You see—he just came home! I was hanging around the apartment house in case anyone brought a message to Mrs. Daniels when I saw him come into the vestibule. He had a three days' growth of beard on his face, and his clothes were all mussed up as if he'd been sleeping in them. He looked like a bum after a three days' jag, but I had no trouble recognizing him."

"Did he seem excited—or anxious to get into the building without being seen?"

"No. He moved slowly, as if he was dazed. He hesitated quite a while before he rang the bell of his apartment, but as soon as he'd pushed it he got impatient, and kept calling, 'Hello!' up the speaking tube, and when someone answered he said 'Open the door quick! It's me—your father.' When the latch clicked he went in, but he made no effort to close the door after him, so I followed. Both Mrs. Daniels and the daughter were in the doorway of the apartment to meet him, and while they were kissing and hugging him I walked in."

"Did Daniels seem startled at the sight of you?"

"No. He seemed sort of stupid as if he was sleepy, but when Mrs. Daniels told him I was a detective and that he was wanted as a witness in the Parrott trial he woke up fast enough and got very excited. He said he had nothing to tell and wouldn't accept service of any subpoena. 'I don't know anything,' he kept saying, and when I asked him where he had been he said he'd been on a little spree to forget his business troubles."

"Did you tell him he would have to appear in court?"

"Yes. But it wasn't what I told him about the law, but what his wife said that seemed to convince him. She told him she had every faith in him, and that what he had to tell wouldn't do any harm, and for him to go. So he said he would if I'd give him time to wash up."

"Is Mr. Daniels in court now?"

"Yes, sir. He is in the witness room."

A stir of excitement swept through the room, but deepened to an ominous whisper of suspicion when Brennan dismissed the bailiff summoned the former manager of Mary Page. For Daniels slunk into the room with an ashen face and trembling limbs. Great beads of sweat stood out visibly on his forehead, and his voice when he took the oath was husky and uncertain. If ever guilt was written large upon any man, it was apparently written upon the erstwhile jaunty theatrical manager. The judge, studying him with eyes psychologically keen, wished he had the full papers of this case before him to learn more of this new witness, and inwardly vowed a recess to study them should the evidence take any unexpected turn. Daniels, however, recovered some measure of self-control under the preliminary questioning and gave his occupation as "manager of the Covington Theatre" with a hint of pomposity, but Langdon's next question brought the startled look back into his eyes.

WHEN YOU WAKE UP DRINK GLASS OF HOT WATER

Wash the poisons and toxins from system before putting more food into stomach.

Says inside-bathing makes any one look and feel clean, sweet and refreshed.

Wash yourself on the inside before breakfast like you do on the outside. This is vastly more important because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing illness, while the bowel pores do.

For every ounce of food and drink taken into the stomach, nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out of the body. If this waste material is not eliminated day by day it quickly ferments and generates poisons, gases and toxins which are absorbed or sucked into the blood stream, through the lymph ducts which should seek only nourishment to sustain the body.

A splendid health measure is to drink, before breakfast each day, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless way to wash these poisons, gases and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels; thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs but very little at the drug store but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on inside-bathing. Men and women who are accustomed to wake up with a dull, aching head or have furred tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, sallow complexion, others who have bilious attacks, acid stomach or constipation are assured of pronounced improvement in both health and appearance shortly.
